

2009 DAVID PACKARD EXCELLENCE IN ACQUISITION AWARD

The MRAP All-Terrain Vehicle (M-ATV) Source Selection Evaluation Board won one of two David Packard Excellence in Acquisition Awards. The award recognizes Department of Defense civilian or military organizations, groups or teams that made highly significant contributions that demonstrated innovation and best acquisition practices. The team's efforts resulted in the selection of a low-risk accelerated delivery candidate for thousands of M-ATVs for quick field deployment.
